In his premiere memoir A Body of Work: Dancing to the Edge and Back, Hallberg delves deep into the intricacies of the ballet world by describing his evolution from a young boy marginally interested in tap to the first American to join the Bolshoi Ballet. A Body of Work is as much a teaching book as it is an autobiography. While connoisseurs of dance or followers of the Bolshoi may already hold a high level of understanding about the intricacies of ballet, Hallberg does not simply write for ...
