Cantata 140 is one of Bach's most famous and best-loved works. It is a chorale cantata and uses a very famous chorale, "Wachuset auf", which appears in many Christian hymnals. Like the chorale heard in Cantata 1, this chorale was written by Philipp Nicolai. There is a very sad story attached to this particular chorale.

As we also see in the famous Cantata 140 (Wachuset auf), Bach here employs a dialogue between Jesus Christ (bass) and the soul (soprano). It is tempting to point out the move to E-flat major as another Trinity reference; in the very least, the E-flat key for both the recitative and duet stands apart from the other movements of the cantata.

A couple of weeks before the first performance of BWV 140, merchants from Leipzig had complained fiercely about Jews in the city. Actually, the shared Jewish-Christian symbolism of this cantata is better suited to Naarden, where there was a lively Jewish community and a new synagogue had come into use precisely in 1730.
