Challenges to Democracy in India - Shruti Vandana

There is a growing fear that free speech is eroding in India, and the government's silence regarding direct attacks on freedom of expression suggests that the problem could worsen over time. Insurgency and counterinsurgency: Regional insurgencies continue to threaten the security situation in some parts of India. They include separatist movements in the northeast, Maoist rebels scattered across the central and eastern region, and militants in Indian-controlled Kashmir who seek independence ...
