Academic Listening Encounters: The Natural World uses a sustained content approach to help students develop the listening, note-taking, and discussion skills they need to meet the demands of high school or college academic courses in an English-speaking environment. Academic Listening Encounters: The Natural World engages students with high-interest topics in the fields of Earth Science and Biology. The Audio Program consists of a class set of Audio CDs containing warm-up activities, informal interviews, and academic lectures. An Audio CD with the lectures is included in the student's book for extra practice. The companion book, Academic Encounters: The Natural World is a reading, study skills, and writing book that introduces students to high-interest topics closely related to the topics in the listening book.

Arielle works for French immigration in Paris and has a reputation for a cold heart. She likes to entertain herself with the younger guys and never considers developing a relationship with a man. When she meets a wealthy and sexy middle-aged man who offers to give her everything, she finds the idea attractive but simply can ' t commit. On vacation in Spain, she meets a desperate young Moroccan whose work visa is about to expire. Against her better judgement, she gives him advice, then help. But when she returns to Paris, she finds she has set a chain of events in motion that quickly spirals out of control. The young man ' s feelings of inadequacy lead to jealousy, gambling, and a chance meeting with a mystery man, completely changing the course of his life.
