What might an analysis of politics which focuses on the operation of power through space and place, and on the spatial structuring of inequality, tell us about the world we make for ourselves and others? From the national border to the wire fence; from the privatisation of land to the exclusion and expulsion of persecuted peoples; questions of space and place, of who can be where and what they can do there, are at the very heart of the most important political debates of our time. Bringing together an interdisciplinary collection of authors deploying diverse perspectives and methodological approaches, this book responds to the pressing demand to reflect on and engage with some of the key questions raised by a political analysis of space and place. Its chapters chart the ways in which inequality and exclusion are played out in spatial terms, exploring the operations of power and resistance at the micro-level of the individual home and small community, analysing modes of securitisation and fortification utilised in the interests of wealth and power, and documenting the ways in which space and place are being transformed by changing socio-economic and cultural demands. As well as analysing the ways in which forms of exclusion and persecution are manifest spatially, the chapters in this book also attend to the forms of resistance and contestation which emerge in response to them. Resistance is found in the persistence of those who build and rebuild their homes and communities in a world which seems bent on their exclusion. At the same time life on the peripheries can give rise to new conceptions of citizenship and public space as well as to new political demands which seek to (re)claim space and contest the dominant order. Bringing together scholars working in fields as diverse as political science, geography, international studies, cultural anthropology, architecture, political philosophy and the visual arts, this book offers

Venti racconti brevi in cui l'Autore affronta, con un'ironia e un brioso quanto dissacrante pizzico di umorismo, il tema dell'energia e del cambiamento climatico, in un momento in cui, sui media, continuano a imperversare toni catastrofistici che potrebbero allontanare le persone dal problema piuttosto che contribuire alla loro sensibilizzazione. Le storie, ambientate a Napoli, fotografano l' uomo e il suo rapporto conflittuale con l' energia, il risparmio energetico e l' ambiente in generale. La tecnologia invade le vite dei protagonisti, sconvolgendole, oppure generando il pensiero che, in fondo, risparmiare energia sia tutto uno sforzo inutile, o ancora solleticando il lato oscuro dell' uomo che, a volte, riesce a prevalere sulle buone intenzioni. Nelle pagine del libro, dunque, l' energia non è una variabile fisica ma culturale, che influisce sulle vite dei personaggi e le condiziona. Il ruolo dell' Autore è stato quello di osservare una loro giornata, un semplice episodio o la loro intera esistenza. Ogni lettore potrà riconoscersi nel petroliere Nabil, nella povera Caterina vessata dal marito maniaco del

Although books have been written about various opera houses throughout the world, no one work has covered more than a relatively small number of the larger, well known companies and houses, and none have made more than brief mention of the smaller houses. No book has comprehensively listed opera repertoires. Little, in sum, has been written about any of the smaller companies and houses located in non-English-speaking countries. This is the most comprehensive reference book ever written on opera companies and houses in Western Europe, Canada, Australia and New Zealand-over 300, from the well known to the smaller. Each entry includes a history of the opera house or company, the works (title and composer) and type of productions offered, company staff, world and country premieres, repertory, and practical information on the theater's address, nearby hotel accommodations and how to order tickets. Most entries conclude with a bibliography.
