1. To grow as a Christian you've got to be in the race. This may sound perfectly obvious, but in reality there are a lot of people trying to run in a race they've never entered. They're trying to grow as Christians by living a good life and doing what Christians are supposed to do, but they've never truly become Christians in the first place.

At the moment we receive Christ as our Savior, we are born again spiritually into God's family. But just as a newborn baby requires nourishing milk for growth and good development, so also a baby Christian requires spiritual food for growth. "Like newborn babies, crave pure spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow up in your salvation, now that you have tasted that the Lord is good" ( 1 Peter
