Leadership: A . . .

The field of educational leadership and management is pluralist, with many competing perspectives and an inevitable lack of agreement on the exact nature of the discipline.

One key debate has been whether educational leadership is a distinct field or simply a branch of the wider study of management.

The importance of leadership and management for education

Education managers who work in school administration, usually as principals, are required to be licensed in most states, if they work at public schools. Requirements vary, but they often include a master's degree and additional training. Sometimes continuing education is needed to maintain licensure. Private schools do not require
