It was my first day as a brand new high school teacher. But I got dumped that morning. Via text. And then one of my students hit on me. And the rest of the day was a complete mess. The beautifully single Mr. Drake McCain found me in my classroom, feeling sorry for myself. And not sixty seconds later he had me laughing and electricity racing through my blood. My family is broken and complicated. I literally don't know my biological father's name. My mother is absent and my half-brother barely knows who she is. But Drake? He's not complicated. He's sweet and kind and insanely adorable, and comes from a wonderful family. He is everything I want. The chemistry between us? It's there in spades. I keep telling myself that I should be feeling really awful and depressed since I just got dumped a few days ago. But I keep getting this ridiculous smile on my face every time Drake is around and it's kind of hard to keep telling myself that. I'm Kaylee Ray. I believe in fairytales and happily ever after's, and maybe the search for Prince Charming is over. Cue reality check.

shark. Lake, the tortured Marine. And Kale, the world-famous model without a care in the world. Different as can be, but always there for each other. Beautiful, romantic, dramatic, intense...and always PG-13.

Getting dumped via text on my first day as a high school teacher wasn't the ideal way to start my morning. Neither was getting hit on by one of my students. It was all a ridiculous wreck, until the beautifully single Mr. Drake McCain found me hiding in the dark in my classroom. Sixty seconds later, he had me laughing and I kind of couldn't stop staring at his lips. Drake isn't complicated. He's sweet and kind and insanely adorable. The chemistry between us? It's there in spades. One moment we're making out in a locked janitor's closet, and the next I can see myself eating pancakes with him every Sunday morning for the rest of my life. I believe in fairy tales and happily ever afters, and maybe the search for Prince Charming is over. Cue the reality check in the form of one bad decision made six weeks ago. Keeping Mr. Ever After is a sweet and sassy romance with a happy ending, perfect for readers who want all the swooning without the explicit content. This book was previously published as Ever After Drake under the name Keary Taylor.

It was one of the scariest things I'd ever done: walking out on stage, opening my mouth, and singing for everyone at that wedding to hear. Because I'm awkward. I always mess things up, I forget my lyrics, and guaranteed, I'll do something weird. I'm a nerd, a lab assistant. Not a pop star. But that night, I met someone who changed my life forever. Kale McCain. World-famous model, ladies' man, not a flaw to him. And the most unexpected thing happened—sparks flew. Everything about Kale is smooth: his attitude, his voice, his body. He is my polar opposite. But somehow, him+me, we work. Then there was the video he made. Us together, me singing, him grinning like I was the sun, moon, and stars. And my simple life exploded. Suddenly, the world has a new celebrity couple to obsess about. We've barely started a relationship. Now there's all this pressure. When our once seemingly perfect life gets shaken, will we come out stronger, or will what everyone has been saying about us—that this is too quick, too serious, and that we're too young for this to be real—come to truth? I'm Whitney Ford, and from the second Kale McCain walked into my life, I knew it would never be the same.

It was another day at the ranch, training horses and working fifteen hour days. And then the last person I ever expected showed up. Lake McCain: a Marine, tall, ripped—and the best friend of my dead fiancé. Cal died to save Lake, and now

Lake claims that he carries a debt to me that he can never repay. I wanted to brush him off. But then my mom, the manager of the ranch, went and hired him. We spend hours working together with the horses. Lake doesn't say much. He's layered and dark and he tries to seem shallow and simple. But he isn't. There are things under his surface that matter. He works, quiet and strong, and never once lets me down. Until he confesses that he may be falling in love with me. I can't deny that there is something between us. But a relationship? I just can't. I've used up all my chances at love. My past relationships have ended in death or disaster, and now I have to live with all of that. I'm Riley James, and there are depths to Lake—depths to myself—that I don't think I'll ever fully understand. The McCain Saga EVER AFTER DRAKE MOMENTS OF JULIAN DEPTHS OF LAKE PLAYING IT KALE (January 20, 2014)

TorBane was created to save the world. Cybernetic technology designed to fuse with human DNA gave it the ability to heal anything. Instead, it left ninety-eight percent of Earth's population more machine than man. Eve is a soldier without a past. Her only goal is to keep her family, the colony of Eden, alive and away from the Bane: those infected by TorBane. She hunts, she watches, and she fights when needed. Avian and West will wake her up. One a soldier, one a keeper of secrets—they will both test Eve's sanity and awaken emotions she never knew she could feel. And she will make a choice that will change the future of mankind. Those few humans left will fight. Against the evolving Bane, against those among themselves that may be human, but may not have a conscience or soul. And they'll stand together until the very end. The Eden Trilogy is The Terminator meets The Walking Dead with a heart-twisting romance and an explosive finish you'll never see coming. This omnibus edition includes

THE BANE, THE HUMAN, THE EVE, THE RAID: an Eden short story, and THE ASHES: an Eden prequel.

Despite Archer King's prophesy, I'm moving forward with my life. I'm not about to let the ravings of a murderous psychopath dictate my future. Things are almost perfect. Almost. But I've lied to Sebastian in the past, and now he's having a hard time trusting me. He's getting a little paranoid about who I'm with and where I'm going. Fires are bound to start when two broken people who are willing to go too far for each other, no matter the cost, fall in love. Then a vampire comes into my emergency room'sick. Vampires don't get sick. We're left without answers when he slips into a coma, and he's not the only one. One by one, the population is falling, and we don't know what's causing it. We've run every medical test in the book, but is this a supernatural illness, or the work of another sinister gifted? I thought I was looking down the path of a smooth, happy future. But this world is constantly changing beneath my feet. And if life has taught me one thing, it's that you never know who you can trust, including yourself.

The weight of being a mage is piling up. I discovered the truth of who Olin really is and he tried to kill me for it. Me, Nathaniel, our students, we're not murderers, but he's putting every single one of us at risk, and a modern witch hunt is just around the corner with him on the loose. We must deal with him. My mother has returned. We have been wary of portal magic ever since her disappearance, but she's brought with her a tale far more perilous and wilder than I ever could have imagined. What we do is dangerous. As we discover more and more magic, we're experimenting with our own lives every single day. We can't ever forget the risk. The academy is growing, our knowledge of magic is speeding along.

Nathaniel and I are planning our wedding. In so many ways, all our dreams are coming true. But none of it is safe until we put an end to Olin. It will take every student at Nightingale Academy to put an end to this. Battle magic was something I never wanted to focus on, but we will do whatever it takes to protect each other. Don't miss the epic finale to the Resurrecting Magic series!
