This is the story of a chick of a sparrow family living on the roof inside the house in Hyderabad, India. The chick accidentally falls to the cement concrete floor and is dead. But, through a miracle, a Hindu Priest who was performing a special Pooja is able to bring the chick back to life. However, on another day, the chick again falls down hearing the loud noise of firecrackers. This time it falls into a box of pickles that were being exported to New Jersey. This is the first adventure of the birdie. However, the birdie is very young and has never gone out of the small nest inside the house and so begins to explore the new surrounding. The birdie also acquired the power to understand the spoken language of Hyderabad namely Telugu and she becomes friendly with a small girl and shares its story.
