Miss Lina's Ballerinas is a book about eight little girls that studied dance with Miss Lina. Christina, Edwina, Sabrina, Justina, Katerina, Bettina, Marina, and Nina in pink head to toe, practiced all day. They danced doing math, while they read, they danced into bed, at the park, and at the zoo.

A Day With Miss Lina's Ballerinas: MacCarone, Grace

Grace MacCarone spins a lovely tale of a Ballet school in Messina where 8 little ballerinas dance through the day in four lines of two. Everything is just as it should be, until Miss Lina introduces a new student, Regina. Now, no longer eight but nine, the dance is not so graceful as the girls try to incorporate a new friend into their

In fact, Miss Lina maintains her composure just like her predecessor, Miss Clavel. Watercolor and colored pencil drawings using a palette of colors reminiscent of the contents of a gumball machine vividly illustrate the ballerinas' love of dance and non-stop activity. Pink, the favorite color of all young girls is the predominant color, with flashes of peach, red and ivory as complements ...

Miss Linas Ballerinas by Grace Maccarone ebook

Miss Lina's class doesn't just dance at ballet class...they dance all through the day, everywhere they go. I know of several little girls who believe you should dance through life and that ballerina books are the best books ever. This book is perfect for all of them. Fun artwork with lots of pink too (also usually a perk for that target group).
