However, I like to take a field guide with me, and in this respect this Phillipps' tome is somewhat larger than the two abovementioned. Again, fairly - but not overly - heavy, a substantial jacket pocket would be required to accommodate this guide, or, more likely in my case, it will spend a lot of time in the backpack.

Phillipps' Field Guide to the Birds of Borneo: Sabah, Sarawak, Brunei and Kalimantan, Third Edition, by Quentin Phillipps and Karen Phillipps is a thoughtful field guide to a magical part of the world, unique in its focus on the country as a whole rather than on individual bird identification. It promises to be particularly useful to birders who have never visited Borneo before, and to the courageous birders who would like to bird the country on their own.
