Anniversary Edition, and expands them to include the deuterocanonical books. You'll find: - 200 great group studies and 60 course plans address the needs of ten different groups -- men, women, singles, youth, recovery, and more -- and cover topics ranging from discipleship to intimacy to spiritual formation to employment to growing older to abuse, grief, and loss, and much more. - Open-dig-reflect questions help group members discover each others' hearts as they get to the heart of God's Word -- and together learn how to apply it to their lives. (Coffee cup icon) starts the meeting with an easy, icebreaking question. (Open book icon) helps participants dig into the Scripture with questions designed to get them thinking and forming their own opinions. (Heart icon) helps group members apply the Scriptures to their lives. - Two color course study pages make this study format effective, thorough, and easy to use. With the official Roman Catholic imprimatur, The NAB Catholic Serendipity Bible is the ideal choice for the groups that want to search out the riches of God's Word, for individuals who want a superb personal study Bible, and for leaders who may not have the experience, but have the heart for conducting group Bible studies that make a difference. In fact, with the 'ready-made' NAB Catholic Serendipity Bible, the only thing you'll have to prepare is the coffee.

This book is about how to read and study the Bible. This book is about getting the non-Christian to learn how to study the Bible, and this book is for the Pastor and theologian who needs to have their "refresh" button pressed. This book is in fact for anybody desiring to know the Book of ages. If you are new to the Word or are a seasoned teacher. If you do not know where to begin, or you have tried countless times and feel overwhelmed and frustrated, this is the book for you!
