The Code of Conduct represents a formal expression of the standards of military conduct understood and accepted by most countries for centuries. It serves as a guideline to be followed by all the members of the armed forces, particularly when in captured or detained status.

The manual encompasses those basic skills necessary for worldwide survival, facilitating search and rescue efforts, evading capture by hostile forces. It is based on and reinforces the values expressed in the Code of Conduct while maintaining an appropriate balance of sound educational methodology and realistic/stressful training scenarios. Covers the following areas: wilderness living, shelter construction, fire building, map and compass navigation, backpacking,

This is a report of an occupational survey of the SERE Training career ladder conducted by the Air Force Occupational Measurement Squadron (AFOMS). The current SERE Training career ladder was created in October 1994. Survey data will be used to identify current utilization patterns among career ladder personnel and evaluate career ladder documents and training programs. The last OSR for the SERE Training career ladder was published in June 1997.
