This is a beautiful book, really nice to share with little ones, and lovely to teach them the sounds of the garden birds. My son recognises several bird songs in the garden now and tweets back at them using the book. 16month daughter old loves it too, it's very engaging and much less annoying than most sound books!

The Little Book of Backyard Bird Songs is one of the very few items with a battery that I like for young children. It's an inviting way for children to learn to identify a variety of bird songs. Not only is there a clear image and description of each bird but the book includes each bird's scientific name, where found, what it feeds on, its nest, its eggs, adult characteristics, and length.
